DISPLAY OF INFORMATION BY THE PUBLIC

I. POLICY

- A. The library's display space, with the exception of the display case, is available to the library and to nonprofit organizations engaged in educational, cultural, intellectual, or charitable activities.
- B. Print information displayed by the public should not exceed 8 ½" x 17" and may remain on display on a space-available basis and at the discretion of the public services director.
- C. When provided in an electronic format, that information may be posted in the library.
- D. Information advocating a religious point of view or a partisan political position shall not be displayed. Information regarding a non-religious or non-partisan political event sponsored by a religious or political organization may be permitted.
- E. Any group requesting information to be posted must be identified by name, address, and telephone number.
- F. No information may be posted or distributed in the library without permission of the public services director.
- G. Displayed information does not constitute endorsement by library staff members or the library board.

II. DEFINITION: Library display space, such as electronic or print bulletin boards and brochure display racks, is space designated by the public services director as usable for displaying information.

III. RESPONSIBILITY: The director shall establish necessary procedures to comply with this policy.
