CONFLICT OF INTEREST

I. POLICY

- A. The purpose of this policy is to protect the library's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of a trustee or the director of the library and to supplement but not replace any applicable state laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit corporations.
- B. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, a trustee or the director must promptly disclose the existence of the conflict and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the board.
- C. A trustee or the director with a possible conflict may leave the board meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon.
- D. Addressing the Conflict of Interest
 1. After exercising due diligence, the board shall determine whether the library can obtain a more advantageous transaction or arrangement with reasonable efforts from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
 2. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, the board shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested trustees whether the transaction or arrangement is in the library's best interest and for its own benefit and whether it is fair and reasonable to the library.
- E. Failure to Disclose a Conflict
 1. If the board believes a trustee or the director has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the trustee or the director of the basis for such belief and afford him/her an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
 2. If, after hearing the response of the trustee or the director and making such further investigation as may be warranted, the board determines that he/she has in fact failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, the board shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

- F. The minutes of the board shall contain the names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection therewith.
- G. A voting member of the board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the library for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
- H. A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the library for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
- I. Each member of the board and the director shall annually sign a statement which affirms that such person:
 - 1. Has received a copy of the conflict of interest policy,
 - 2. Has read and understands the policy,
 - 3. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and
 - 4. Understands the library is a non-profit organization and that in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes
- J. Periodic reviews shall be conducted to ensure the library operates in a manner consistent with non-profit purposes and that it does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its status as an organization exempt from federal income tax.
- K. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:
 - 1. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's-length bargaining.
 - 2. Whether partnerships, joint ventures arrangements, and arrangements with management service organizations conform to written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable payments for goods and services, further the library's non-profit purposes and do not result in inurement, or impermissible private benefit.
- L. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the board its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.
