

UMFPL Application for Selection to Board of Trustees

UPPER MORELAND FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Although the Upper Moreland Free Public Library has a professional staff of librarians for day-to-day operations, the authority and responsibility for its administration is in the hands of a citizen Board of Trustees. Our Bylaws dictate that "the board shall consist of seven persons of legal age who are residents of the township and who shall be duly elected by the sitting board of trustees." The Board is always on the lookout for qualified residents willing to serve as an unpaid volunteer Trustee. Completing this form and returning it to the Library is an indication of your interest, and will be considered carefully by the Nominating Committee as vacancies occur. Many thanks for your interest! Please attach a current resume or CV. Thank you.

Availability

The Board of Trustees meets throughout the year in the Upper Moreland Library at 6:30 PM, the second Wednesday of every month. It is imperative that trustees are available at this time. Trustees may be removed from office for inability to attend meetings. Trustees may be asked to join and attend committee meetings at convenient times. Will you be able to comply with these requirements?
